

WHAT WE DO

Our Services

Everything a book needs, between idea and shelf

Smith For Christ Publishing is a faith-driven book publisher. We carry the full range of work a book needs — and you keep every right to it. Engage us for the whole journey or for a single stage.

THE SERVICES

Seven crafts, one partner

SERVICE	WHAT IT COVERS
Editorial support	Developmental guidance, structural editing, line and copy editing, and proofreading — matched to where your manuscript actually is.
Interior design & formatting	A clean, readable book interior — front matter, body pages, and back matter — typeset to professional standards.
Cover design	A complete cover designed as one piece: the front, the spine, and the back — plus a matching ebook cover.
Ebook production	Conversion to a reflowable ebook, built and checked for Kindle and other readers.
ISBN & metadata	Guidance on ISBNs for each format, plus the title metadata that helps readers find the book.
Print setup & proofing	Print-ready files built to exact specification for paperback and hardcover, with a proofing pass before approval.
Launch support	Practical help getting the book live and into readers' hands, and a sensible plan for the weeks after release.

HOW WE WORK

One partner, the whole journey

You are not assembling a scattered team of freelancers and hoping the pieces fit. One partner carries your book from first idea to finished, shelf-ready product — every stage, every handoff accounted for, with you brought in at each approval point. The message is yours; the machine is ours.

Wherever your book is today — an idea, a rough draft, or a finished manuscript — that is a place we can begin.

Walk well.
